

CUTLINE -- On October 21st 2010, Commissioner Joe Martinez visited the CBT College of Business & Technology Campuses to guide the students on launching their own businesses within the community. The students presented their plans and presentations to the Commissioner and he provided them inside tips on how to find funding and capital to start their business.

Some of the students included: Alexis Vega, whom presented an electronic Healthcare reform system for doctors needing to convert medical records electronically; Mina Oviedo, that created a cooling product; and Dianelys Gonzalez who wants to open up a Cuban Bakery.
